

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rob Dorinson, President of Evergreen Recycling, Named SBA's Small Business Person of the Year 2009

March 12th, 2009- Evergreen Recycling is proud to announce the Nevada District office of the U.S. Small Business Administration has selected Rob Dorinson, President of Evergreen Recycling, as the SBA's Small Business Person of the Year 2009 for the State of Nevada.

Dorinson has been invited to attend SBA's National Small Business Week in Washington, D. C. (May 17-19) to be recognized with all other state Small Business Persons of the Year. This year marks the 56th anniversary of the SBA, and the 46th annual proclamation of Small Business Week.

The nominees are judged by an independent panel of small business leaders on a variety of criteria, including staying power, growth in number of employees, increase in sales, current and past financial reports, innovativeness of product or service, response to adversity, evidence of contributions to community-oriented projects, and small business advocacy.

Evergreen's operation has been praised by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), and remains the largest facility of its kind in Nevada, processing and annually recovering 120,000 tons of materials.

"We are honored by this recognition and proud to represent the State of Nevada in Washington D.C. From the beginning our mission has been to increase state-wide recycling and sustainable practices in Southern Nevada. We feel this award symbolizes our success and progress in this endeavor"-Rob Dorinson
